A Luoi

HUE • THUA THIEN HUE • VIETNAM

One Day,
One Night,
One Adventure!

We invite you to come and discover Hues beautiful mountainous tourism destination: A Luoi!

You can learn about the way of life of the Ta Oi and Ka Tu People; go trekking in forests home to the recently discovered saola, and many other unique species; walk in the footsteps of those that lived through the American/Vietnam war...

A Luoi district is located in the west of Thua Thien Hue Province, two hours drive from Hue city. It is blessed with beautiful landscapes, rich wildlife and nature, and the colourful traditional cultures of several ethnic groups. A Luoi is also the site of many battles during the American/Vietnam war; including the infamous Hamburger Hill. A Luoi has many exciting and unique sites and activities to offer.

Experience village life and unique cultures

- Overnight stays at Ta Oi communal houses
- Local, Vietnamese and vegetarian food service
- Cultural shows of traditional music and dance
- Observe and learn about local handicraft production, like Det Zeng textile weaving.

Historical sites

- Visiting American/Vietnam war sites, like Hamburger Hill, A Shau airbase and Hong Bac Tunnels
- Travel along the famous Ho Chi Minh trail

Stunning landscapes and nature

- Spectacular views from the Ho Chi Minh highway overlooking the Green Corridor forests, an area of international conservation importance, which home to significant populations of threatened species including Saola, Truong Son muntjac, Edwards pheasant, red-shanked Douc's Langur, white-cheeked gibbon and other important species
